ADDITIONAL PROBATION TERMS

The defendant shall submit to a search of his person, property, residence, adjacent structures, office, vehicle, papers, computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)), and other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, conducted by a U.S. Probation Officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall warn any other residents or occupants that the premises and/or vehicle may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. An officer may conduct a search pursuant to this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that the defendant has violated a condition of his release and/or that the area(s) or item(s) to be searched contain evidence of this violation or contain contraband. Any search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner. This condition may be invoked with or without the assistance of law enforcement, including the U.S. Marshals Service.

The defendant shall pay a fine in the amount of $10,000. The defendant shall cooperate with the U.S. Probation Officer in developing a monthly payment plan consistent with a schedule of allowable expenses provided by the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant may be required to participate in an IRS offset program which may include the garnishment of wages or seizure of all or part of any income tax refund to be applied toward the fine balance. You may be required to participate in the Treasury Offset Program which would include the seizure of any government payment to be applied toward the fine balance.

The defendant shall perform 80 hours of unpaid community service per year (for a total of 160 hours) at a non-profit agency as directed and monitored by the U.S. Probation Officer.

The defendant shall serve six months of home confinement. During this time, the defendant shall remain at his place of residence except for employment and other activities approved in advance, and provide the U.S. Probation Officer with requested documentation. The defendant will not be required to wear an electronic monitoring device as long as he/she remains in compliance with the terms of the program; however, if the defendant violates the terms of supervision, the probation officer shall require the defendant to wear an electronic monitoring device. In lieu of wearing such device, the defendant will be subject to random telephone calls at his residence to verify the defendant's location and compliance with the approved curfew schedule. The defendant shall pay for the aforementioned services at the prevailing rate or in accordance with the ability to pay.
